This delightful renovated 2 bedroom Art Deco home, located in a quiet cul-de-sac, offers the peace and privacy that you've been searching for, yet also the convenience of being located close to Chapel St and Hawksburn shops, and public transport. Inside, a generous hallway opens onto a large living/dining area, which in turn flows onto the kitchen area. Also adjoining the living room is a very useful separate study/storage room. You will love the kitchen, fitted with stainless steel European appliances including a dishwasher, as well as the cleverly designed recently renovated bathroom with its' frameless open walk-in-shower, and concealed laundry. The large master bedroom retains many of its' lovely Art Deco features and is fitted with a built-in robe. In addition to a beautiful front garden, there is also a large, sunny and very private rear courtyard complete with a deck, perfect for entertaining. Other features that compliment this charming home include beautiful decorative high ceilings, polished floorboards, ducted heating, plentiful storage, security entrance with intercom, and off-street parking.
