

A PLACE TO CALL HOME

This charming double-fronted weatherboard home is perfectly positioned for an effortless lifestyle. Space meets classic period features with all the modern functions you could need. The covered front porch opens to a lovely, wide central hallway leading on to 2 spacious bedrooms with plush carpet, built-in robes, and security screens. The larger-than-average lounge becomes the hub of the home with an open plan layout, sliding door to undercover deck and split system heating/cooling. The adjoining sunny kitchen is modern with dishwasher, gas cooking, ample storage and enough space for a table and chairs. Complimented by a bright centrally located bathroom with a separate bath, a large separate laundry, separate WC and a neat back yard with storage shed. Located between Harold & Nimmo Streets this property is walking distance to Middle Park Primary School, a short distance to Tram services #12 & #96, Armstrong Street shopping village and the beach.
